Welcome Back

to where coast meets country in North Kent

Time to receive a warm 'welcome back', experience and explore the three distinctive destinations of the Isle of Sheppey, Faversham, Sittingbourne and surrounding villages that make up the Swale area of north Kent.

The Isle of Sheppey has a rich maritime and aviation history, award winning beaches, nature reserves, theatre entertainment and seasonal boats trips from Queenborough Harbour for all to enjoy. Consider a holiday park, local hotel, B&B or something quirky like a Shepherds Hut or tent on Elmley Nature Reserve for your staycation.

The ancient market town of Faversham and home of Britain's oldest brewery (Shepherd Neame Brewery & Visitor Centre) has so much to offer in addition to a great Kentish history lesson with a range of coffee shops, independent retailers and specialist markets providing plenty to browse. Close by the home of the National Fruit Collection at Brogdale Farm, Belmont House and Gardens, Mount Ephraim Gardens and Macknade provide a great taster of the Kent countryside.

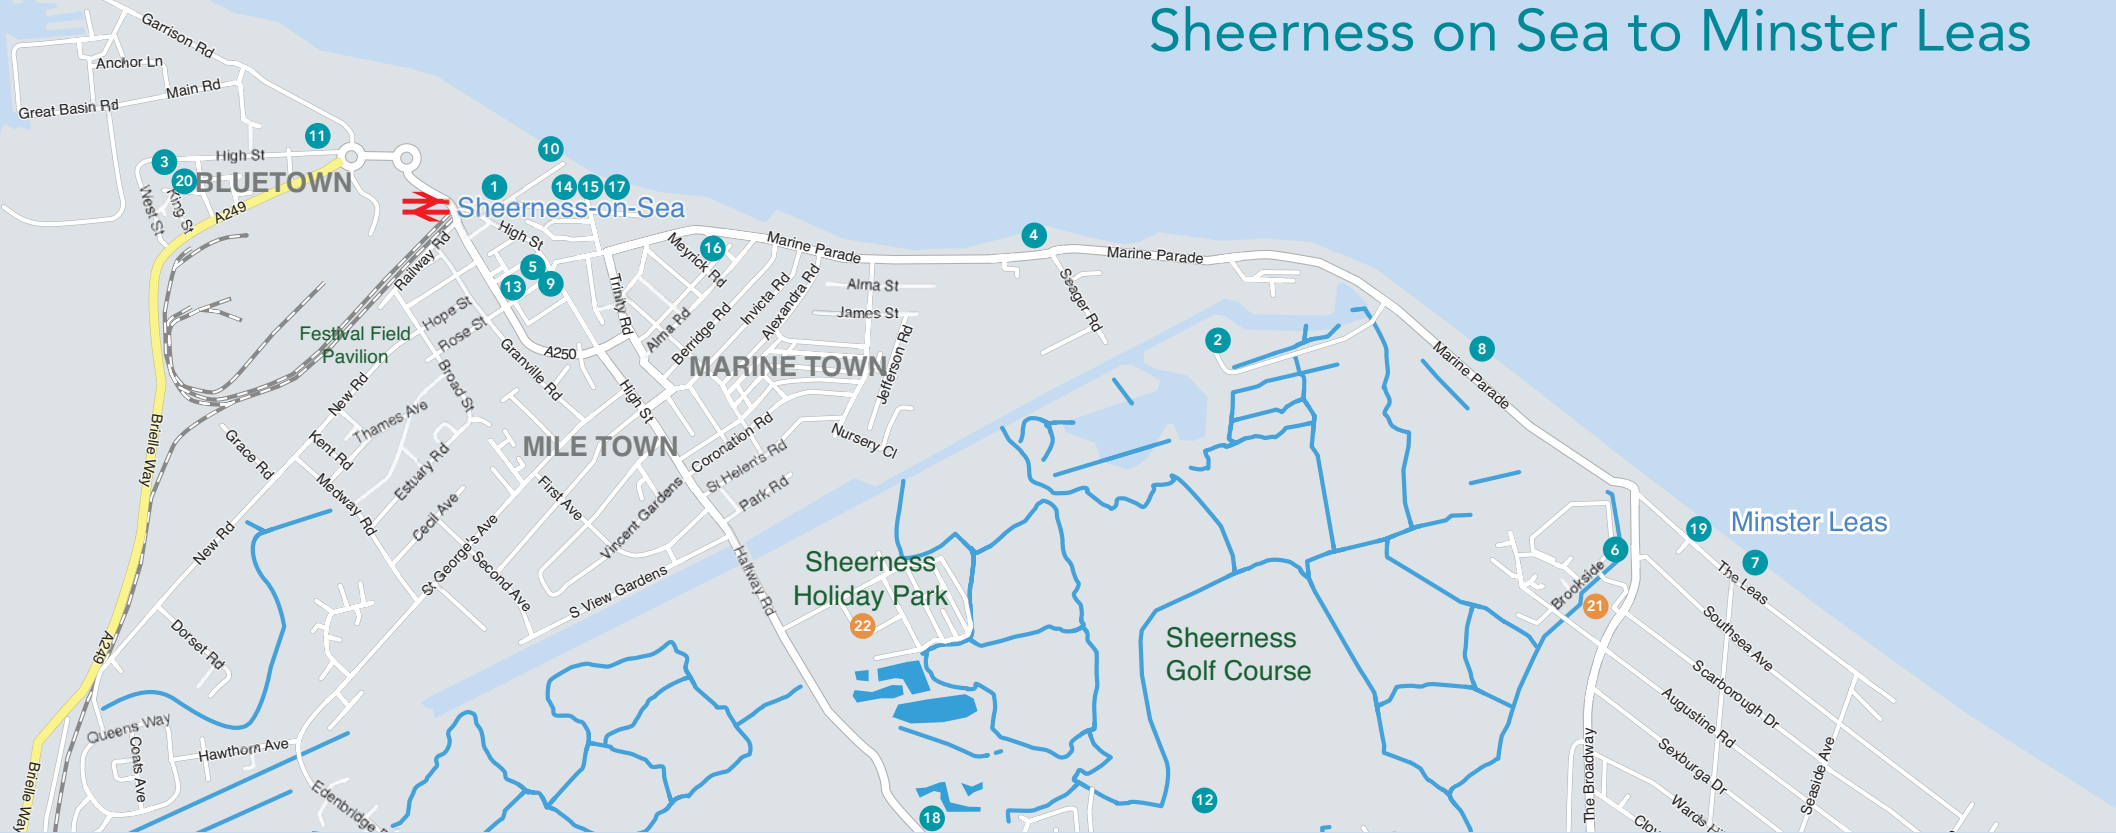

Rediscover Sittingbourne with its new leisure offer, cinema, bowling, restaurants and hotel. Only an hour from London on High Speed 1 from St Pancras with good connections to the Channel coast, a great base to explore all that Kent has to offer.

Note: This document is an updated version of a 'Swale Visitor Map' produced in 2018 and mainly focuses on listing attraction and accommodation businesses located in the Swale area and featured on the Visit Swale website. It has been made available to download or view online to raise awareness of the area and assist residents and visitors find things to do and places to stay in Swale. This initiative has been a 'Welcome Back Fund' project to support businesses and encourage the return of residents and visitors to Swale town centres and destinations.

Faversham - Market Town of Kings

Faversham, the oldest market town in Kent and recorded in the Domesday Book, is packed with history and located on a winding creek. Faversham is also home to Shepherd Neame, Britain's oldest brewer. Faversham still has the charter issued by King Henry III that confirms the Town's status as a Cinque Port.

With an amazing array of independent shops, a reputation for fine food, fascinating places to visit, stunning countryside and great opportunities for walking, Faversham is the perfect place to unwind and enjoy a short break.

Housed in the Town Hall at 12 Market Place the Visitor Information Centre should be the first stop on your visit to Faversham. The staff are all local volunteers with excellent knowledge of the area and a wealth of maps, books, postcards and locally made gifts for sale.

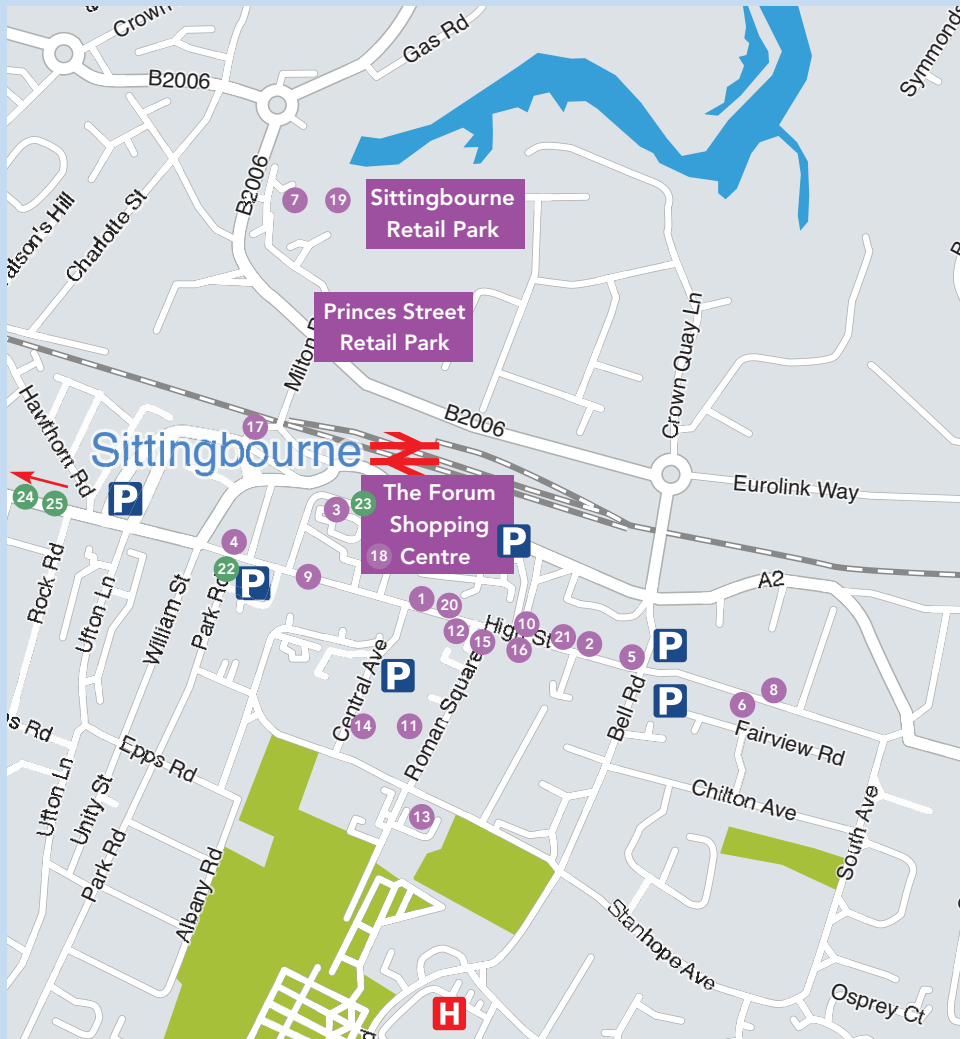

Faversham's main market runs on Tuesday, Fridays and Saturdays every week selling a wide range of local produce. 'Best of Faversham Arts, Crafts and Food Market' is on the first and third Saturday of each month., with 'Faversham Antiques and Vintage Market' on the first Sunday of every month.

Other highlights include Faversham Pools (open air) and all year indoor swimming, the Royal Cinema an independently run, traditional cinema and Standard Quay boasting one of the oldest warehouses in Britain.

The surrounding Kentish countryside is dotted with pretty villages offering plenty to do and see Brogdale Collections – Home of the National Fruit Collection, Macknade – one of the country's leading food halls and country homes and gardens at Mount Ephraim, Belmont House and Doddington Place Gardens.

C Coach Parking: Set down and pick up at Central Car Park, Leslie Smith Drive, Faversham, ME13 8PW. Long stay coach parking at Macknade, Selling Road, Faversham. ME13 8XF
